Shoots Himself in the Mouth.

After encolsing $10 in a farewell letter he had written to his wife, addressed to Governor's Island, New York, Norman Oles, a corporal in company D., 22d infantry, ended his life pany D., 22d infantry, ended his life. Thursday afternoon by shooting himself through the mouth while he was in a room in the Florence rooming house on East Overland street. With the letter to his wife, which was sealed, was found a stamped envelope with the dead man's name and his address as Fort Bliss.

Thursday morning Oles went to the Florence rooming house and obtained a room. It was believed that he slept most of the day on account of having most of the day on account of having been in charge of the provost guard which was sent from the post Wednesday night to assist the police in keep-ing order in the lower part of town. Thursday afternoon between 3 and 4 octock, the soldier called for a boy and gave him 50 cents with which to purchase some envelopes and writing chase some envelopes and writing paper. After receiving the stationery, it is believed Oles wrote the letter to his wife, and then shot himself. Cororner E. R. McClintock who held the inquest Thursday afternoon, stated that the man must have shot himself through the mouth, closing it to deaden the report.

Oles's body, stretched on the bed, was discovered by a chambermaid about 6 oclock Thursday afternoon. The maid saw the body through the window and noticing that the head was dow and noticing that the head was covered with blood, stated to another roomer that she did not believe that he was the man who had secured the room earlier in the morning. The door to the room which was locked was forced open, and Oles, whose head was covered with a mass of blood, was found lying on the bed where he had fallen after shooting himself. A government pistol was hanking to the thumb of his right hand which was aeroas his lap.

The soldier had been in the service 12 years. No reason is known for his act in taking his life. He was about 10 years of age. Cles was known as a steady and reliable soldier. In the Philippine islands it was stated that he had shown remarkable courage and herevery on search oversions. His wife bravery on several occasions. His wife was notified of his death by the au-thorities at Fort Bliss. Pending ad-vices, the body is being held at a local undertaking establishment.

Dread of Frosts-Provisions Weak.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 30.—Fear that harvesting in the northwest would be delayed a week caused strength to develop today in wheat. For a while, however, the market suffered from a surprising lack of buying orders. The opening varied from %c off to %6 %c up. December started at 95 to 95%c, a gain of a shade to % %%c, fell to 94%c and then rose to 95% 95%.

The close was weak, %@%c lower for December at 94%c. Corn advanced owing to dread of Corn advanced owing to dread of frosts. Shorts and new investors bought. September opened ½ to %c, at 74½ to 74%c, eased off to 74%c and railled to 74%c.

The close was steady with September 57c, just the same as last night. Absence of export demand kept oats relatively weak. September started a shade lower at 32%c, touched 32% % %c and late recovered to 33%c.

Provisions were generally weak. The first sales ranged from 2%c for lower to 10c up, with January 19.40 for pork; $10.80 for larg and $10.25 for ribs.

WITH DYNAMITE PLOT The President of American

Bond at Boston. Boston, Mass., Aug. 20.—President William M. Wood, of the American Woolen company, was arrested today on an indictment warrant charging him with consultant to distribute dynamite in Lawrence during the strike there last winter.

President Wood surrendered himself to the authorities and was accompanied by counsel.

Mr. Wood furnished cash bail of $5000. It is understood he will be formally arraigned in the superior court next Tuesday. He denies any connection with the alleged dynamite plot.

Mr. Wood is one of the best known textile men in the country and the American Woolen company, which bore the brunt of the great Lawrence strike, from January 12 until March 14, controls 43 manufacturing plants in New England and New York state. It has a capital stock of $7.000,000 and employs 35,000 operatives when all the machinery is in operation. About the machinery is in operation. About 1000 persons are on the pay rolls of the company's mills in Lawrence.
